Matisse as Printmaker will Shen new Light on one of the Greatest Artists of the 20th Century

By artnews.org

The Baltimore Museum of Art presents the first comprehensive exhibition on the printmaking of the great French artist Henri Matisse. On view October 25, 2009 - January 3, 2010, Matisse as Printmaker unites the BMA's extraordinary collection of Matisse prints with a traveling exhibition organized by the American Federation of Arts, a non-profit arts organization, and the Pierre and Tana Matisse Foundation.

Creating the West in Art

By Peter H. Hassrick

For about two generations now, a group of American museums has been exploring the nature and significance of western art. It was exactly fifty years ago, in the dusty but prim and busy town of Cody, Wyoming, near Yellowstone National Park, that the Whitney Gallery of Western Art (sister institution to New York's Whitney Museum of American Art) was founded with that charge as its mission.
